Pius, Bishop, Servant of the Servants of God.

For a Perpetual Memorial.

The care of all Churches, belonging to the Office of Our Holy Apostolate, demands that we see to it that the Episcopal See of each diocese be set up in that city which seems to correspond best with the greater convenience of the Faithful and the government of souls, as well as of various local circumstances. It is a matter of common knowledge that Oregon City, although small, is a place so distinguished by historical association and by its geographical location that it was, in 1846, set up by our predecessor, Pius IX, as the location of a Cathedral Church, and in 1850 was raised to the status of the Metropolitan See. However, with the passage of time, it has become less fitted and convenient as a See of the Archdiocese, not only because the Catholic Church of St. John had become incapable of containing the number of the Faithful but also and especially because the city of Portland gradually increased, both in size and industry, and is at the present time the outstanding city, so that our Venerable Brothers, the Archbishops of Oregon, many years ago, thought it opportune for the better government of souls, to transfer their residence to Portland and, in fact, to make it the See of their Archdiocese. For these reasons, therefore, our Venerable Brother, Edward D. Howard, the present Archbishop of Oregon, has urgently asked us that the Catholic Church be transferred to Portland and that this city would give its name to the Archdiocese. Wherefore, we, having maturely considered all circumstances and having heard favorable recommendation of our Venerable Brother, Peter Funasoni-Biondi, Archbishop of Dioclea, Apostolic Delegate of the United States of America, have decided to accede the request of the aforementioned Archbishop of Oregon. Wherefore, taking as granted the consent of all those who are interested and all those who believe themselves to be interested, we, by these present letters, suppress the Episcopal rights of Oregon City, and by our

0000 0000 0000 0000

Supreme Authority raise and constitute the city of Portland to the Episcopal See of the Archdiocese; we wish, furthermore, that the Archdiocese, itself, shall henceforth be called "Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon", and we grant to the city of Portland all the rights, privileges, honors and prerogatives which the other Episcopal Sees in North America enjoy and use. We, furthermore, erect the Church, dedicated to God in honor of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in the same city of Portland as the Metropolitan Church of the same Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, and we set up in it the Archiepiscopal See, and to the same Church we give all the goods and revenues which hitherto pertained to the Metropolitan Church of Oregon City. We wish, however, that to the transcripts of these, our letters, even though printed, but signed by some Notary Public and sealed by some man constituted in ecclesiastical dignity or office, should be attributed the same authenticity which would be attributed to these letters themselves if they were produced; notwithstanding, insofar as this appertains, any rules whatsoever set up in Synods, Provincial Councils, General Constitutions, Apostolic Ordinations, or by other dispositions of our predecessors, the Roman Popes, though they may be worthy of special mention. Nor will it be lawful for anyone to infringe upon or contravene the things decreed in these letters. If anyone, however, should dare to presume such a thing, let him know that he will incur the indignation of Almighty God and of his Blessed apostles, Peter and Paul.

Given at Rome, at St. Peter's, the year 1929, on the 26th day of September, in the 7th year of Our Pontificate.

Case No. 04-37154-elp11
Chapter 11

AMENDED STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

The Debtor is a not-for-profit ecclesiastical entity that ministers to Catholics and others in Western Oregon.

The Debtor does not, by filing its petition, Statement of Financial Affairs, Schedules, and other documents in this case, waive any of its rights under any applicable law, including, without limitation, Canon Law, the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and the Oregon Constitution, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, the Church Autonomy Doctrine, Charitable Trust Law, and the rights to object to disclosure of information and to contend that certain assets disclosed herein are not property of the estate.

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs.

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

LOWRY COURT REPORTING

1 your hand or something, because we want everybody to be
2 able to hear.

3 So I'm going to go ahead and ask some of the 4 questions I had and then, as I mentioned, we'll turn it
5 over to Mr. Kennedy. And I'm going to ask these 6 questions -- Can people hear me as I'm talking? I'm 7 going to ask these questions not directed at any specific 8 person, and so you can decide who wants to answer them..

9 Before I start, did anybody else have any 10 general statements that they wanted to make?

11 MR. STILLEY: I don't think so.

12 MS. GRIFFITH: Can you please explain
13 generally how the archdiocese operates and what it does.

14 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: As the archbishop of 15 Portland, I oversee the pastoral activities of all the 16 Catholic parishes and institutions in Western Oregon.
17 It's a territory of around 30,000 square miles,

18 As the archbishop, I'm responsible for the 19 sacramental and prayer life of the people, the educational 20 ministries, the outreach to the poor and needy, and the 21 governance,

22 And I operate with an administrative staff
23 that serves at the archdiocese and pastoral center here in 24 Portland. My closest and most direct advisors are a group
25 called the cabinet, eight persons, and two of them are

1 here today. They are the ones that would be most expert
2 in the areas that pertain to this bankruptcy filing.

3 I have pastors in 124 parishes. Five of the 4 parishes have a pastoral administrator and the -- who 5 serves because the pastor's only part time. And then
6 there's 26 missions.

7 The institutions that are operated by the 8 archdiocese are primarily schools. The archdiocese
9 doesn't own a seminary or a university or a hospital, as 10 is true in some other large archdioceses.

11 And with respect to governance, it's a
12 hierarchical church, and so I am the final say, but I, on 13 many issues, must deal with a presbyteral council which 14 assists me in matters of governance, a board of consulters
15 which must consent with me on some issues that are 16 important, like this one, that I do this.

17 I have an archdiocese and pastoral council to 18 help me in those earlier -- the nongovernance works of the 19 church. And then I have an administrative or finance
20 council which oversees all financial matters and we meet
21 regularly with Mr. Vuylsteke, and they would be the ones 22 who approve the budget and things like that.

23 MS. GRIFFITH: Will there be changes in 24 the way the archdiocese operates as a result of the 25 bankruptcy filing?

1 the ministry of secondary education, so I pursued a couple 2 of degrees to be licensed as a school administrator and 3 as a teacher, and I had to study some languages for the 4 sake of pastoral ministry.

5 So those are my educational experiences.

6 MR. KENNEDY: Would you summarize your
7 employment history with the Roman Catholic Church in the 8 United States.

9 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Well, for the first
10 22 years of my priesthood, I served as a priest in the 11 archdiocese in Chicago. I was the associate pastor in 12 five different parishes. I taught in a high school
13 seminary for 16 years. I became a pastor of a largely 14 Hispanic parish in the City of Chicago, served there for a 15 few years.

16 And then I was assigned as the president
17 rector of the college seminary, which was affiliated with 18 Loyola University. And after serving in that capacity for 19 a little more than two years, I became an auxiliary bishop
20 of Chicago, and there I served for three and a half years.

21 And then they sent me off to Minnesota, and I
22 became the bishop of Winona, Minnesota, where I served for 23 ten and a half years. And in the fall of 1997, I was 24 appointed the archbishop of Portland in Oregon, and here I
25 am.

1 So serious matters that we would feel an
2 obligation to be together on, those are the kinds of 3 matters that would require the approval of the Holy See.
4 Sometimes the Holy See might specifically say that, they
5 might intervene, but that doesn't happen very much.

6 MR. KENNEDY: So, for example, with the 7 2002 bishops charter for the protection of children and 8 young people, was -- what was the role of the conference
9 in the adoption of that charter?

10 MR. STILLEY: Hold on here. I think
11 we're getting a little far afield here with -- I think you
12 may be getting into religious matters which are covered by 13 the First Amendment, and I don't want us going into things
14 that -- that will be protected by the constitutional
15 privilege of freedom of religion.

16 And you're getting into church governance
17 here, I think, more than you're getting into the financial 18 affairs and stuff with the debtor, so I think we need to 19 be a little careful here.

20 MR. KENNEDY: Well, I guess I would ask
21 Archbishop Vlazny to explain why answering the question
22 relating to the adoption of the bishops charter for the 23 protection of children and young people in 2002 would in 24 any way burden or inhibit anyone's free exercise of 25 religion.

1 counsel for the Archdiocese of Portland?

2 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: No.

3 MR. KENNEDY: Then, Ms. Furness, I would
4 ask you what the substance of your conversations with 5 Mr. Chopko were.

6 MR. STILLEY: Could you repeat the
7 question?

8 MR. KENNEDY: I'm just asking Ms. Furness
9 for the substance of her conversation with Mr. Chopko.

10 MR. STILLEY: That's privileged. It's
11 communications in the church and religious affairs. I'm 12 going to have to assert the privilege of the First 13 Amendment on that.

14 MR. KENNEDY: Your assertion is a First
15 Amendment privilege, rather than a --

16 MR. STILLEY: And there may be -- and 17 there may be other privileges, and I'm not sure what they 18 might be, but I'm not going to get into it here.

19 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Speak up, please.

20 MR. STILLEY: First Amendment, there's 21 the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. I'm not going to 22 get into all these First Amendment things here. And 23 you're talking about communications with a lawyer for the 24 conference of Catholic bishops. That's not relevant.

25 MR. KENNEDY: Well, it's extremely

1 want to come forward.

2 But, generally, claims have come through
3 litigation, we really have been successful, we -- I've let
4 it be known that we want to deal fairly and responsibly
5 with victims.

6 I'm willing to meet with people. I have a
7 victims assistance coordinator who's appointed who is 8 willing to meet with people. We've let it be known in our 9 parishes about these avenues of approach. Whatever we can 10 do to improve the efforts, we -- we -- we are willing to 11 do.

12 But our posture is, as a church, these are 13 people who are members of our community who have been 14 aggrieved and, as the head of the church, I would want to 15 reach out to them and I would want the people in our 16 parishes to help me reach out to them or do it themselves.
17 So I think that word is out.

18 But I also know it's sometimes difficult for 19 victims to come forward and they come forward at their own
20 rhythm the moment that they sense they can come forward
21 and receive what they feel will be a fair hearing, whether 22 through litigation or through approaching someone in the 23 parish or at the archdiocese.

24 MR. KENNEDY: Now, in a letter to your
25 parishioners dated February 17th, 2004, you stated that 37

1 to be associated with the archdiocese or assigned to an
2 archdiocese parish or ministry.

3 MS. FURNESS: Various religious orders
4 over the years have staffed different parishes, and so
5 they are assigned by their religious order to a certain --
6 typically, parish ministry assignment. The bishop
7 approves that assignment. So they are not archdiocesan
8 priests, they're religious order priests working in an 9 archdiocesan ministry.

10 MR. KENNEDY: And to your knowledge,
11 would the religious order then have personnel records with 12 respect to those priests?

13 MS. FURNESS: Yes, they would.

14 MR. KENNEDY: And has an effort been made
15 as yet to obtain those records?

16 MS. FURNESS: As I said before, most of 17 the priests identified have been the subject of litigated
18 claims. In virtually every situation where a claim has 19 been litigated, the religious order has provided what 20 records it has, the archdiocese has provided what records
21 we have.

22 MR. KENNEDY: Just to sort of wrap this
23 up, to the best of your knowledge, the source documents,
24 the source records that you used to compile your report to 25 the John Jay study are still available? Is that correct?

1 entities including dioceses and parishes. And the
2 question is, has this archdiocese adopted any statutes?

3 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: I really don't know.
4 I'm sorry.

5 MR. KENNEDY: And to your knowledge, have 6 any of the parishes in this archdiocese adopted any 7 statues as required or permitted by Canon 117?

8 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: I don't know.

9 MR. KENNEDY: But sitting here today, you
10 are unaware of anything that's called a statute that has 11 been adopted by this archdiocese; is that correct?

12 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes.

13 MR. KENNEDY: And sitting here today, you
14 are unaware of any statutes that have been adopted by any 15 parish of this archdiocese; is that correct?

16 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes.

17 MR. KENNEDY: Now, in your time as a
18 bishop or archbishop, have you ever ordered that any 19 parishes be suppressed or merged?

20 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes, a couple times
21 in Minnesota; and since I've been here, we've done it a
22 few times, as well.

23 MR. KENNEDY: Would you -- would you just 24 describe the times that you have ordered that while you've 25 been here.

1 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Here? Well, we had
2 the -- when I came, back in 1997, the parishes in North
3 Portland were in the process of determining how they would
4 continue to function. And, at the time, there were four 5 parishes in North Portland.

6 And a recommendation was made to me, in the 7 spring of 1998, that the parishes be consolidated into one
8 parish and called the North Portland Catholic Community.
9 And one by one, the other parishes were eventually 10 suppressed when we determined how the parish assets and 11 property would be utilized in the future.

12 The other time, it was a small parish,
13 St. Johns, down in Drain, Oregon, which was served by a --
14 served basically as a mission of the parish in Sutherlin,
15 St. Francis, and that parish -- that would be three or 16 four years ago -- was suppressed and the parish assets,
17 you know, went over to the parish where they -- and the 18 parishioners went to Sutherlin or Roseburg, I -- those 19 parishes now work together, Sutherlin and Roseburg.

20 MR. KENNEDY: And under canon law, is it
21 your decision to decide whether to suppress or merge a
22 parish?

23 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Right, following
24 certain procedures, yes. I'm the final say.

25 MR. KENNEDY: Do you know Archbishop Sean

1 O'Malley?

2 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes.

3 MR. KENNEDY: And is he the archbishop of 4 the diocese in Boston?

5 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes.

6 MR. KENNEDY: Are you aware that he is in 7 the process of suppressing 60 to 70 parishes in the 8 Archdiocese of Boston?

9 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: I am aware that he's 10 suppressing parishes. I don't know the exact number, but 11 it's a big number.

12 MR. KENNEDY: Does he have the authority
13 to do that as the archbishop of the Archdiocese of Boston?

14 MR. STILLEY: Mr. Kennedy, how would he 15 know?

16 MR. KENNEDY: It's under canon law.

17 MR. STILLEY: Well, it's up to that
18 archbishop to decide based on his circumstances.

19 MR. KENNEDY: I asked him if he had the 20 authority, not whether he was right in doing it.

21 MR. STILLEY: If you know.

22 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Well, he has the same
23 authority in his diocese that I have in mine.

24 MR. KENNEDY: Which includes suppressing
25 the parishes, doesn't it?

1 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Yes.

2 MR. STILLEY: Mr. Kennedy, the problem
3 with that --

4 MR. KENNEDY: The question has been asked
5 and answered. We'll move on.

6 I'm going to ask -- I'm going to ask some
7 questions -- a few questions with respect to the schedules
8 of assets and liabilities and the statement of financial 9 affairs that were filed in this case.

10 And, Archbishop Vlazny, did you review those 11 documents before they were filed?

12 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Not thoroughly.

13 MR. KENNEDY: Who was primarily
14 responsible for preparing and filing those documents?

15 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: The two people who
16 are up here answering questions with me.

17 MR. KENNEDY: Now, you were asked a few
18 questions earlier about an entry in the schedule of 19 liabilities, and particularly Schedule D, which lists
20 creditors holding secured claims which lists the 21 archbishop as trustee of the perpetual endowment as one of 22 the secured creditors.

23 Are you aware of the loan that was made by the 24 perpetual endowment to the archdiocese?

25 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Am I personally aware

1 debtor do not list any of the accounts that are in the 2 name of the parishes; is that correct?

3 MS. FURNESS: Correct.

4 MR. KENNEDY: Do -- Ms. Furness, do you
5 or anyone else at the pastoral center have signing
6 authority for accounts held at the parish level?

7 MS. FURNESS: I don't, but I'm going to 8 let Mr. Vuylsteke answer that.

9 MR. VUYLSTEKE: For checking accounts and 10 for -- for checking accounts and for dollar amounts -- for 11 checking accounts and for amounts in other long-term pool,
12 I have signing authority, yes.

13 MR. KENNEDY: And -- okay, so that's two 14 different -- those are two different instances in which 15 you have signing authority?

16 MR. VUYLSTEKE: Yes.

17 MR. KENNEDY: And so is it your 18 understanding that you have signing authority on all of 19 the checking accounts held at the parish levels?

20 MR. VUYLSTEKE: Yes.

21 MR. KENNEDY: And how does that actual --
22 how do the mechanics actually work for parish-level
23 checking accounts?

24 MR. VUYLSTEKE: When a parish opens up an 25 account, they get their signatures on the cards and then

1 they send it in for my signature. My signature is on 2 there for emergency purposes and for continuance purposes.

3 MR. KENNEDY: And is there any limitation
4 on the -- on your ability to sign checks for the -- on the 5 parish checking accounts?

6 MR. VUYLSTEKE: Only if they present them
7 to me or ask.

8 MR. KENNEDY: Well, if you were to sign a
9 check and present it to the bank, would the bank honor
10 that check?

11 MR. VUYLSTEKE: Yes.

12 MR. KENNEDY: Now, Archbishop Vlazny --
13 We're getting close to the end of my list, by 14 the way.

15 -- I have a couple more questions for you.
16 And one question is that, prior to the adoption of the 17 charter for the protection of children and young people,
18 were there procedures in place, to your knowledge, in the 19 United States, in the diocese of the United States, for 20 the manner in which sexual abuse or priest abuse
21 allegations were to be handled by the Roman Catholic
22 Church?

23 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: There weren't
24 procedures that were common across the United States, but 25 there were five principles that the bishops agreed upon

1 something and ask you if this is your press release or
2 not, okay? It's a -- for the record, it's a May 10th,
3 2002, press release from the Catholic Sentinel.

4 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Oh, this is one of my 5 columns.

6 MR. MULLEN: That is one of your columns.

7 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Uh-huh.

8 MR. MULLEN: Okay, if you could look
9 down -- there's one, two, three, four, five -- could you
10 read me the fifth paragraph.

11 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: Presently, the
12 archdiocese has been able to settle almost all claims
13 through the archdiocesan insurance fund. But you and I
14 are the ones who contribute to that fund through parish
15 assessments. There is no archdiocese apart from the 16 parishes and institutions. They are the means by which we 17 offer people pastoral care and carry on our sacramental
18 teaching and service ministry. If and when the insurance
19 fund is depleted, payments of claims must be made through 20 other funds of the archdiocese. Certainly, victims need
21 to be assisted and compensated for their suffering.

22 MR. MULLEN: Now, you started
23 contemplating potentially going bankrupt in February of 24 2003; is that correct?

25 ARCHBISHOP VLAZNY: That was the first

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF ARCHBISHOP WILLIAM LEVADA
taken on behalf of Plaintiffs, at 1 Peter Yorke Way,
San Francisco, California, beginning at 9:10 a.m. and ending at 1:56 p.m. on April 7th, 2004, before me, Darcy J. Brokaw, RPR, CRR, CSR No. 12584.

:25:52 1 no doubt about it.

2 BY MR. ANDERSON:

3 Q Can you think of anything worse than that,
4 short of homicide?

:25:57 5 MR. DULCICH: Same objection.

6 A Not at the moment.

7 BY MR. ANDERSON:

8 Q Now, you were appointed Archbishop for the 9 Archdiocese of Portland on July 1st, 1986, and 26:14 10 installed on September 21st, 1986?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And appointed by the Holy Father?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And as Archbishop, you answer directly to 26:24 15 the Holy Father?

16 A Yes.

17 MR. ANDERSON: Now, with his appointment,
18 Tom, as Archbishop of Portland in 1986, is it still 19 your position that he shouldn't answer questions
26:40 20 pertaining to his state of knowledge in 1985?

21 MR. DULCICH: Well, yes, because --

22 MR. ANDERSON: Okay. I just want to know.

23 MR. DULCICH: -- Mr. Devereaux claims
24 molestation in the early '60s, Mr. Chestnut in 1969,
26:53 25 and Mr. Brewton in 1984. And Oregon law is awfully

:47:06 1 Gregorian?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And I trust you were assigned there by the 4 bishop?

:47:16 5 A Yes.
6 Q And I'd like to ask you about the role of 7 the bishop to a priest. I'd asked you about the 8 obligations of a priest to the Community of the 9 Faithful. I'd now like to talk some and ask you
:47:37 10 questions about the relationship between a bishop
11 and a priest.

12 MR. DULCICH: I appreciate where you're
13 going here, Jeff, but just to save time, again I'm 14 not going to have Archbishop explain any further
:47:52 15 about the internal governance of the Catholic
16 church.

17 MR. ANDERSON: This isn't internal
18 governance, Tom. Listen to the question and then
19 make your objection, will you?

8:00 20 MR. DULCICH: All right. Sure.

21 BY MR. ANDERSON:

22 Q It is correct to say that it is the bishop
23 that is singularly responsible for the placement,
24 transfer, and supervision of priests within his
:19 25 Diocese, correct?

48:20 1 A Yes.

2 MR. DULCICH: Let me just object to that.

3 That is internal governance. And I appreciate the 4 question. He answered it; so I guess I wasn't quick
48:32 5 enough with my objection. So you got me on that 6 one. But I -- go ahead, Jeff.

7 MR. BARTON: Well, on my behalf, even
8 though you weren't quite quick enough, I'm willing 9 to assume that you would have in a timely fashion
48:48 10 asserted your objection and that he's legally not 11 available to me, absent the judge agreeing with us.

12 MR. DULCICH: You know, Mr. Anderson might 13 be right on that question. That might not be an 14 opinion question, although I just -- go ahead, Jeff.

49:08 15 MR. ANDERSON: Are you saying that that 16 was an appropriate question, then, and you're not 17 going to object to it? I'm confused about what your 18 position is here.

19 Tom, let me just say, I've never really
9:19 20 had that objection on that question ever in 23
21 years.

22 MR. BARTON: Well, let him tell us whether 23 or not he's holding onto his objection.

24 MR. DULCICH: Just go ahead, Jeff.

9:28 25 MR. ANDERSON: Okay.

07:30 1 comment about what other people may or may not have
2 done or should or should not have done is opinion,
3 and that's outside the scope of this deposition and,
4 under Oregon procedure, is not proper.

07:43 5 MR. ANDERSON: Are you instructing him not 6 to answer?

7 MR. DULCICH: I am, I am. He's here as a
8 fact witness for the Maurice Grammond case. And he 9 came to Portland in 1986.

07:52 10 BY MR. ANDERSON:

11 Q When you served as Archbishop in the 12 Archdiocese of Portland, it was your obligation as 13 Archbishop to supervise every priest of the 14 Archdiocese, correct?

08:03 15 A Yes, in a general sense.

16 Q And it was then your obligation to 17 supervise Maurice Grammond?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And if, during that time, a rumor of
08:15 20 sexual misconduct by Maurice Grammond surfaced,
21 whose obligation was it to investigate?

22 A If I was the Archbishop, that would be my
23 obligation, if there was a founded, substantiated
24 rumor, to conduct an appropriate investigation.

08:43 25 Q How do you determine if a rumor is founded

:14:30 1 Q Would you agree -- and I'm interrupting
2 you just a little. Would you agree that accusations
3 involving sexual abuse would be a serious complaint?

:14:39 4 A If that's what we're talking about,
5 absolutely.

6 Q All right. And why is it you're so sure
7 that that should be documented?

8 A Well, I hope it would be documented. I
9 mean, you never know. There are certainly church
:14:48 10 entities that have sloppy record keeping, so -- but 11 I mean, it would be -- it would be, you know,
12 important information, particularly if a priest were 13 transferring to another Diocese; or even in my case,
14 if I may say so, you know, for the transition from 15:08 15 one bishop to another, you have to have records.

16 Q And I don't know that it was fully 17 developed, but in fairness to you, I guess you were,
18 what, the number one administrator, the CEO for the 19 Archdiocese? Is that a slang term to capture the 15:25 20 idea of your job?

21 MR. DULCICH: Object to the form of the 22 question.

23 A Yes.

24 BY MR. BARTON:

5:28 25 Q All right. And give us a sense of your

1 estimate as to the number of people you were
2 responsible for administering. And an estimate is 3 fine.

4 MR. DULCICH: Object to the form.

5 A Not saying that I had the same direct
6 level of responsibility for everybody, but I
7 suppose, oh, 1,500, 2,000.

8 BY MR. BARTON:

9 Q And that number, albeit an estimate, would 10 be those people that you would have had ultimate
11 responsibility for; is that fair?

12 A I don't think I understand what you mean
13 by "ultimate."

14 Q Okay. I guess that there would have been 15 various entities within the Archdiocese; is that 16 right?

17 A Right.

18 Q Give us a sense of some of those entities.

19 A Well, parishes, for example; they might 20 have a staff of two or three or 20 or 30. If they 21 have a school, the school is under the principal;
22 the principal is hired and fired by the pastor, the 23 pastor is appointed by me.

24 Q I see. So, in some form or another, to 25 the extent it's under the umbrella of the

2 A Yes.

3 Q All right. About how much of your time

:16:56 5 administrative responsibilities with this number of 6 people?

7 A Too much.

8 Q Well, could you give me a little -- your 9 best estimate on that?

:17:05 10 A I would say about 60, 70 percent.

11 Q Now, can you give me your estimate -- and 12 I'm looking for your best recollection -- as to the 13 number of personnel files that would have been 14 maintained at the Archdiocese headquarters during 17:27 15 your tenure?

16 A Well, there, I would say would be the 17 priest files --

18 Q An estimate on the --

19 A -- permitted deacons and lay employees of 17:38 20 the -- not of the parishes, but of the chancery
21 office.

22 Q Can you give me a sense as to the rough
23 number of those?

24 A We had about a hundred pastors and priests
7:48 25 and perhaps 30 or so visiting priests, religious
